

Feeling Blue at Christmas ...

The time leading into Christmas can be so busy. So many people around us are rushing to prepare for happy celebrations with family and friends. There seems to be no time for those who are finding that this Christmas brings sadness as well as joy.

If you are carrying hurt in your heart this Christmas time or finding it hard to enter into the festivities as others seem to be able to do, you are not alone.

You are invited to join us for a

Blue Christmas Service

at

Marion-Warradale Uniting Church

Wesleyan Chapel, Township Road

7:00pm

Wednesday 18 December 2019

This brief service will include Bible readings, prayer, music, and time to remember and reflect that we find God not only in the joy and the celebration of Christmas but also in all the realities of human life, including our hurt and confusion. It will be followed by a time of fellowship and refreshments.

... you are not alone
